MONTHLY GUILTY 5 YEARS IN PRISON

Admits Attempt to Burn City Mission and Takes Sen- tence Stoically

James C. McCarthy, charged with arson in attempting to destroy the Mission at 1225 Second Street, at 111 as the home of Philip Lee, Secretary of the Mission, on February 11, was sentenced to a term of five years imprisonment in San Quentin by District Judge Whitely today.

McCarthy has a long prison record, due to his attempt to commit arson in this city. He served twenty months in the State of Nevada for making five years for horse-stealing and three years for arson.

The act was allegedly employed at the Mission, where McCarthy was employed as a night clerk, but was "served" with neglect by Secretary Lee and released to a cookmaker. This action was thought to have angered him and was possibly the reason that he attempted to destroy the Mission.

McCarthy was sentenced to the County Jail in September, 1910, after being found guilty of failing in court to save a man from causing fire in the Superior Court today. He lived all night and pleaded guilty.
